POST PARADE WINES 2016 'STRETCH DRIVE' CABERNET SAUVIGNON NAPA VALLEY

Post Parade is the result of three friends from Kentucky looking to create something worth appreciating. For those not accustomed to leaning against the rail, Post Parade refers to the moment when thoroughbred horses walk on to the racetrack, minutes before stepping in to the starting gate. A rare moment of perfection.

While Stretch Drive is made in a similar fashion as its companion, Post Parade, it showcases another side of Napa Valley — soft, rich, and fruit-driven. It has a velvety mouth feel with more subdued tannins. Renowned winemaker Thomas Rivers Brown worked hard to create a wine of this quality at a price that every wine lover can afford.

LAUREL GLEN VINEYARD 2016 'COUNTERPOINT' CABERNET SAUVIGNON SONOMA MOUNTAIN

Laurel Glen Vineyard, a thousand feet up the slopes of Sonoma Mountain, has long been considered one of the iconic Cabernet vineyards of California. The vineyard's combination of high altitude, eastern exposure, rocky soils, and small diurnal temperature swings combine to produce memorable wines, rooted in a sense of place.

In music 'counterpoint' is the relationship between voices that are harmonically interdependent yet independent in rhythm and contour. Laurel Glen Counterpoint Cabernet Sauvignon beautifully reflects the pedigree synonymous with Laurel Glen Vineyard, while establishing itself as uniquely harmonious and stylish.
