ARBE GARBE 2018 WHITE BLEND RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY, SONOMA

Winemaker Enrico Maria Bertoz focuses on the production of few singular wines whose character is influenced by his native land, Friuli. Arbe Garbe is Friulian for the “bad weeds” which are often used, there like here, as cover crops. Friuli is a region nestled between Austria, Slovenia and the rest of Italy.

TASTING NOTES: The nose explodes to musk, lychee, warm peaches, charcuterie and beeswax with high-toned notes of fresh green herbs. The medium to full-bodied palate has a gorgeous silken texture, ever-so-slightly creamy, with kaleidoscopic bursts of ripe fruit in the mouth. It's concentrated while still incredibly light on its feet, addicting in its freshness and long, textured finish.

Composition: 55% Malvasia Bianca, 25% Ribola Gialla, 20% Tocai Friulano

Y. ROUSSEAU 2017 WHITE WINE NORTH COAST

After making and tasting Colombard and Chardonnay for more than 10 years, Yannick came up with this unique and delicious blend. Colombard is a variety originally from the South-West of France where it has been grown for two hundred years. Yannick made his first Colombard in 1996 in the heart of Gascony. It was once the most widely planted white grape in Northern California.

TASTING NOTES: Crisp, bright, inviting, boasting a bouquet of pear, golden apple pie, white stone fruits, pineapple and subtle hazelnut. The entry is energetic and generous, exhibiting flavors of lemon curd, lychee and quince. While this is a fresh, juicy, mouth-watering white wine, it has an incredible midpalate weight and texture with zesty acidity and minerality carrying the flavors through to the lengthy finish.

Composition: 65% Colombard, 35% Chardonnay
