KEEVER VINEYARDS 2015 CABERNET SAUVIGNON NAPA VALLEY

Keever Vineyards is a small family owned and operated winery in Yountville, in the Napa Valley. And when we say family owned and operated, we mean it. On any given day there are between two and four Keevers on site. During fruit processing we get aunts and uncles in too.

Keever Vineyards are located in foothills of the Mayacamas Mountains (about 300 feet above the valley floor) close to the Yountville Veterans home, just south and west of the town of Yountville. Their vineyard layout was designed by well-known vineyard manager, Jim Barbour. And it is Jim who highly recommended their winemaker, Celia Welch who has made every Kever vintage since their inaugural vintage in 2002.

TASTING NOTES: This fully ripe Cabernet Sauvignon shows intensely aromatic tones of spiced plums, cranberry, cherry tobacco, fresh sage, and a note of warm toasty vanilla. On the palate the texture is immediately broad and plush, with bright, fresh berry notes and dusty mocha/dark cherry flavors both simultaneously enveloping the palate. The finish displays surprisingly resolved tannins given the overall weight of the wine, and fades to a lingering impression of fresh cherry.

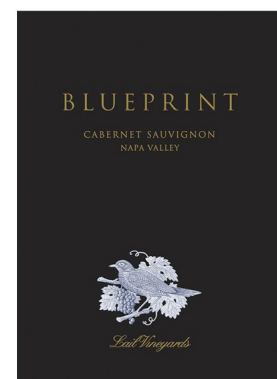

Composition: 100% Cabernet Sauvignon

Well regarded Philippe Melka has been their winemaker since the beginning; in fact Lail Vineyards was his first wine consulting job in the Napa Valley. Robin first met Philippe at Dominus at the beginning of his career.
