PURSUED BY BEAR 2015 CABERNET SAUVIGNON COLUMBIA VALLEY, WASHINGTON

Actor and Yakima native Kyle MacLachlan launched his wine project "Pursued by Bear" with Eric Dunham beginning with the 2005 Cabernet Sauvignon. Wine has brought Kyle MacLachlan back home to the Pacific Northwest, to Walla Walla to craft small lots of limited production reds and the occasional rosé that speak of the promise of this special terroir.

TASTING NOTES: The 2015 Pursued by Bear is a Cabernet-driven beast with fragrant aromas and intense fruit flavors that manage to remain balanced and refined, due in part to the grapes' natural acidity, a hallmark of the Columbia Valley's warm fall days and cool nights. Full-bodied and voluptuous, this wine is brimming with plush Bing cherries, blueberries and ripe black currants, wrapped in firm, polished tannins. Grapes were sourced from a diverse collection of three award-winning Washington State vineyards to produce a complex, layered wine.

Composition: 81% Cabernet Sauvignon, 19% Merlot

Production: 479 cases

PRIME CELLARS 2016 CABERNET SAUVIGNON COOMBSVILLE, NAPA VALLEY

After working with grapes from all over California, PRIME's winemaker, Ted Henry, launched PRIME Cellars with the 2005 vintage to focus on a prime piece of Napa Valley called Coombsville. With its cooler temperatures and unique flavor and acid profile, Coombsville was approved as Napa Valley's newest AVA in 2012. In 2013 we opened our Downtown Napa tasting room at 974 Franklin Street.

Ted is the winemaker at Napa Valley's Clos du Val and has been making wine in Napa Valley since his graduation from UC Davis' winemaking program in 1999. PRIME wines are extremely limited with production levels of less than 1000 cases annually.

TASTING NOTES: From the Coombsville appellation, the 2016 Cabernet Sauvignon Coombsville is deep garnet-purple colored with a pretty, perfumed effort exhibiting notes of baked cherries, mulberries and spice box notes with hints of fragrant earth and tobacco. Medium bodied with silky tannins and a charming, balanced, thoroughly enjoyable style.

Composition: 93% Cabernet Sauvignon, 7% Cabernet Franc

Production: 251 cases

Regular Price: $62.99 CLUB CRUSH PRICE: $56.69
